What Participants say

"I liked in particular that the consultants tried to find out my strengths and made me feel more confident for the German labor market!"

"It was a great time! We gained a lot and would like to thank you for the effort and time you devoted in this course!"

"I liked that the program was flexible as well as structured at the same time. It motivated me for a job search at proper time."

"Especially the fake job interviews with recording and the open discussions helped me realize, that not every job suits me and that I have to select the vacancies I apply for wisely!"

MINT - making your career

*- For International Students! -
"More than 200 absolvents have taken part"*

MINT – making your career in Germany

Staying in Germany for your career?

If you are an international student or recent graduate you might struggle with some important issues:

- How do I get into the German labor market?
- Do I have to watch out for specific requirements on my application papers?
- Do I really have to send more than 100 applications to get a job?

What is this about?

We offer you a guiding process to fetch your dream job in Germany. From an HR perspective we support you in your career planning and search effectively for your ideal job. 1:1 meetings will help you compose your qualities and expertise in words. We discuss job ads to figure out what type of candidate is wanted. You will exercise to present yourself and answer questions like "Why should we hire you?"

Batches in 2018

The next batches in 2018 are scheduled for:

- April - March
- Mid April - Mid June
- July - August

Only 10 students can take part in each group.

Over the duration of 8 weeks there will be 1-2 meetings per week.

(Appointments can be fixed individually according to one's schedule.)

Contents

- The German Labour Market:
We provide you with an overview over the current demand for skilled job opportunities, earning potentials, career planning and career entry.
- Job search:
Together we search and discuss job advertisements and train you to become more effective and efficient in the job-search yourself. We create targeted speculative applications, and inform you about expectations of German employers.
- Self-marketing strategies:
We help you to create your personal profile, to sort out realistic career perspectives, to undergo assessment centers successfully and we train you in interview techniques (face-to-face, telephone).
- Support in application process:
We give examples when to apply with application papers in German and when with those in English. Furthermore we assist you in writing your cover letters in German.

Who can participate?

1. Recent graduates and students who are about to graduate from the University of Paderborn, with permanent residence in the area of Paderborn.
2. Students of one of the following: Maschinenbau, Technik, Elektrotechnik, Informationstechnik or Naturwissenschaften.
3. You will end your studies within the next 3 months. Or you just finished your studies and haven't found a job yet.
